Director's Report

- The day-to-day running of the library is the same, we have our regulars and a few non-regulars show up from time to time.
- Changes are still going slowly, I did talk to Steve about moving the two shelves.
- Currently I'm working on the annual report for the State Library and it is going slowly but should be done before the due date of Oct 31.
- Marcy will be taking a vacation next week I'll be working her hours
- I had a meeting with the other library directors in the district.
